

CREATIVITY, CONTINUITY, COMMUNITY

Summer/Fall 2007

Hi there,

Enclosed is your dues form for Sept. 2007- August, 2008. We hope you will join with us as we continue to build this most amazing network. Our conference in Vienna was both stimulating and productive, and we're looking forward to the next conference which will take place in Detroit in May. Feel free to Email our Executive Director, Kayla Gordon at k-gordon@shaw.ca for more information.

As a member theatre, playwright or performing artist - your benefits from AJT membership are as follows:

- * a page on the AJT Website
- * inclusion in our Theatre for Young Audience play catalogue
- * access to the AJT Member mailing list - in order to receive and send scripts and inquiries to and from other members
- * networking opportunities - through conferences and e-mail exchanges
- * a listserv which provides opportunities to share information about upcoming projects and productions.

AJT is a member-driven and governed organization, with very low dues payments, which functions primarily to be an advocate for Jewish Theatre and Jewish Theatre artists. Camaraderie, sharing, networking - these are the primary benefits of being of a member of an organization such as ours.

And most exciting--our website is getting new hits everyday, so make sure to keep your information up to date! Did you know you can have your own theatre page designed by our webmaster? Once you have paid your dues, you can Email Denise Young at: denise@dmystudio.com with information on your newest plays and performances and she'll set it up for you. Available to paid members only. You will also be able to join our listserv at: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/AJTMembers/>

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
Janet Arnold, AJT Membership Chair
