Dear Friends,

In preparation for our upcoming elections at our annual conference in Los Angeles this February, the Association for Jewish Theatre's Nominating Committee is compiling a slate of officers for open positions.

Currently we have positions open for vice-presidents, to serve a two-year term, and openings for representatives-at-large to serve one-year terms. This is a good way to get involved and the one-year terms help orient people to the Board. In the past, members who've served have contributed expertise in communications, website design, playwriting, producing, solo performances, etc., but no specific expertise is required other than a desire to help inspire new programming and promote our cause: Jewish theatre. Due to recently receiving our 501(c)(3) status, another new and exciting area to strategically explore is seeking appropriate grants and effective fundraising. All in all we hope to ramp up our programming and have great fun while doing it!

The slate, compiled by our nominating committee, will be based on the numbers of responses we get, the areas of interest that prospective nominees bring, and the particular needs of the board for this year. If you have an interest in serving please send me a bio/cv, the reasons why you want to serve, what position you would like and what you want to contribute, and the best way for me to be in touch with you. You do not have to be at the conference to be on the slate.

Thank you and feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Diane Gilboa
Secretary, AJT
